

Grand jury OYEA 2025

Caroline Bois COO of Andromède

Vice-Chairwoman of the Board of Directors of Rémy Cointreau

A graduate of HEC and the MAP master's program at INSEAD, Caroline Bois has held various management positions at Freelance.com, Dictis and International SOS in finance and project management since 1998, before joining the Rémy Cointreau Group in 2014 as Group Controlling and Planning Director.

In 2019, she joined the Andromède holding company and now holds the position of Deputy Managing Director/COO.

Caroline Bois was appointed Vice-Chairman of Rémy Cointreau's Board of Directors on July 21, 2022. She is a member of the Audit-Finance and Nomination-Compensation Committees.

Caroline Bois has also been a member of OENEO's Board of Directors and Audit Committee since 2019.

She is also a board member of unlisted companies such as mdGroup and The Webster, and a member of EthiFinance's Supervisory Board and Audit & Risk Committee.

Finally, Caroline Bois is Chairman of the Famille Partage Espérance family endowment fund, which targets public-interest projects contributing to the accommodation, protection or support of individuals.