Christophe Dandois

Co-founder and CEO, Leocare

After graduating from IGR-IAE Rennes, Christophe Dandois co-founded Niji in 2001, a reference in the digital transformation of large companies. After 15 years working in the telecoms, banking and insurance fields, Christophe took a new step forward in 2017 when he co-founded Leocare, France's first neo-insurance company. Thanks to its digital approach, the company has attracted more than 200,000 customers, reached one million downloads of its app and raised $133 million to accelerate its development.
