

Grand jury OYEA 2023

Thierry Dassault Deputy General Manager, Dassault Group

From 1994 to 2006, Thierry Dassault was Chairman of Dassault Multimedia, which acquired stakes in Infogrames, Gemplus, Infonie, BFM, CdandCo, Net2one, Emme and Welcome Real-time. He also personally invested in Chapitre.com.

In 2004, he was the federator of Keynectis, which became OpenTrust in September 2013 and then IDnomic in February 2016. He was its chairman from the beginning. IDnomic provides electronic certification and security services, used for digital identification of people, devices or connected objects. The company was sold to the Atos Group on September 30, 2019.

At the end of 2006, Thierry Dassault created TDH, an investment structure in emerging technologies and niche sectors, which holds stakes in Aquarelle, Bernardaud, Blablacar, Coravin, Halys, La Maison, L Capital, Qista, Scarcell, Wallix Group and YouScribe.

He was re-elected in June 2020 for 1 year as Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Groupe Industriel Marcel Dassault (GIMD) and Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Rond-Point Immobilière. He is also President of Dassault Immobilier Canada Inc.

He sits on the boards of Artcurial, CDEFQ (Cercle des Dirigeants d'Entreprise Franco-Québécois), Dassault Aviation, Dassault Médias (Le Figaro), Halys, Immobilière Dassault, Particulier et Finances Editions, Royal Hotel - Winter & Gstaad Palace, SITAM Belgium, Champagnes Taittinger and Wallix Group.

He is also a member of the strategic committee of YouScribe.

He was President of the 58th National Session of the IHEDN (Institut des Hautes Etudes de la Défense Nationale) from 2006 to 2020. He is also Vice President of the Kidney Foundation and a member of the boards of directors of the Serge Dassault Foundation and the Alzheimer's Disease Research Association.

He is an Officer of the Legion of Honor and an Air Force Colonel of the French Citizen Reserve.
